

Please join the Rothschild advisory team for lunch on Thursday, February 7th to hear Joe Cronin, VP at American Funds, share his market insights.

Synopsis

International trade tensions, rising interest rates, and political turmoil all culminated in late 2018 leading to a surge in volatility and a violent market downturn. Many investors are unsure of how to position themselves going into 2019 in light of the current macroeconomic and political climate and our current position in the late stages of the business cycle.

Rothschild Investment Corporation

Rothschild is Chicago's oldest, independent money management firm having been in business since 1908. We are client focused, 100% employee owned, and conflict free. Our team of experts have the optimal mix of experience, intellect, and longevity that allows us to provide insights through the many stages of our clients' and their heirs' lives.

American Funds

American Funds is the mutual fund business of Capital Group, one of the world's leading asset managers with over $1 trillion in AUM. American Funds invests more in market research than any other mutual fund firm in the world giving them a unique and highly valuable take on the current market atmosphere.

Joe Cronin, VP

Joe has been in the financial services sector for 30 years and with American Funds for 18. He has been following markets and speaking to investors for decades and has a wealth of knowledge, experience, and a world class research team behind him.

DETAILS

WHERE: The Union League Club, 5th Floor, 65 W Jackson Blvd., Chicago, IL 60604

WHEN: Thursday, February 7th at 11:45 AM; lunch will be provided

DRESS CODE: Business casual (collared shirt and slacks; no jeans)

Please RSVP via email to jmejdrich@rothschildinv.com by Thursday, Jan. 31st*